

Privacy Statement - Sunderland People First

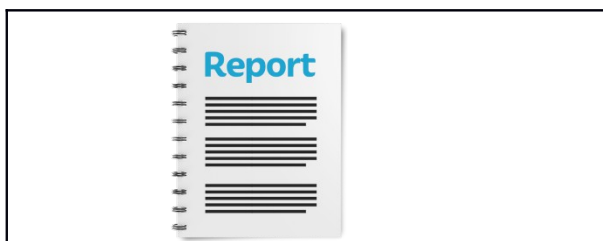

New General Protection Regulations (GDPR) came into effect on 25 May 2018. This means that there are changes to the way all organisations are allowed to keep and use personal data.

Information we collect includes email addresses and telephone numbers.

We keep this information safe.

We use this information to provide information about our company to our Funders and does not identify anyone by name.

You can ask us if we have information on you - and why we keep this information, and you can let us know if you don't want us to keep it.

We only hold onto your information for as long we need to.
